Evangelism

RML Romans 4pm and 6pm
22–24 May 2020

Name: _____

Welcome to the evangelism weekend away (online)!

We're really excited about our RML Romans weekend away and a chance to think a bit more about evangelism. This St Helen's webpage contains everything you will need for the weekend. We will hear bible teaching from William on what the 'gospel' is and what it means to be 'gospellers'. We will also have practical seminars with Carl Porter on how we can share the gospel. Many of us won't know Carl, a video introducing him is available now.

We've included a suggested timetable for how you can take part in the weekend away. There is space in the timetable to listen to three talks from William. These talks have been edited from the talks William gave on the RML Romans Evangelism weekend in 2018. They are available now so you can listen to them at your own pace.

Additional videos and parts of this handout will be added to this webpage in the coming days, do check back in.

We've suggested time during the weekend when your RML groups can meet together to discuss the talks. Your RML leaders will be in touch about these.

We will also spend time in our RML groups during the seminars with Carl. Details for these zoom calls will be available soon.

Carl's second seminar will include a chance to ask questions.

Please send in questions during the weekend.

For those who wish to hang out with others on Saturday, there is some Zoom fun planned from 8pm—check your emails for more details about these.
